Please note: Registration is open now, but participants will not be able to begin the course until the start (opening) date.

These self-paced online courses are available through Canvas. Participants must register BEFORE the course begins at 9:00 a.m. Contact Wendy Bryant, Disabilities and Online Coordinator, at wendy@aalrc.org, if you have questions.

These trainings will examine the foundational aspects of learning disabilities. This will include defining a learning disability, and understanding the barriers of learning disabilities and how they impact adults inside and outside of the classroom.

You may register using this link: http://www.escweb.net/ar_esc. Registration is open!

The Arkansas Adult Learning Resource Center ensures equitable access and participation in federally funded Title II programs and meets the requirements of Section 427 of the General Education Provisions Act (GEPA). Participants should contact the AALRC at 1-800-832-6242 or info@aalrc.org regarding any special needs required during training, such as accessibility needs, special equipment needs, learning needs and dietary restrictions. In addition, The AALRC will ensure equitable access and participation in Adult Education activities conducted with federal adult education funds.
