[*Please note: Registration is open now, but participants will not be able to begin the course until the start (opening) date.]

These self-paced, online courses are available through LINCS. Participants must register BEFORE the course begins at 9:00 a.m. on start day. Staff are only required to take this course once during tenure of employment. Contact Wendy Bryant, Disabilities and Online Coordinator, at wendy@aalrc.org, if you have questions. LINCS related questions should be directed to LINCS.

This course will cover the basics of learning disabilities as it relates to the adult education population. It will also cover researched based practices. Participants will be required to complete modules online and submit evidence through a provided Google document. The course must be completed by the closing deadline or participants will have to register for the next available course.

You may register using this link: http://www.escweb.net/ar_esc. Registration is open!

The Arkansas Adult Learning Resource Center ensures equitable access and participation in federally funded Title II programs and meets the requirements of Section 427 of the General Education Provisions Act (GEPA). Participants should contact the AALRC at 1-800-832-6242 or info@aalrc.org regarding any special needs required during training, such as accessibility needs, special equipment needs, learning needs and dietary restrictions. In addition, The AALRC will ensure equitable access and participation in Adult Education activities conducted with federal adult education funds.
